Makaries Concerned About Israel Ties

NEW YORK (INA) - Architshop Makurios has expressed concern over future relations between Cyprus and Israel, the Israel correspondent of The New York Times reported from Nicosia dent of The New York Times reported from Nicosia on Tuesday.

Discussing future Capriot foreign relations in an interview with the correspondent, the Archibishop declared. The difficulty we may face is in our relations with Israel. The U.A.R., in particular, and the Arab world in general, would not like to see us have relations.

He then pointed out that 10,000 Cypriots live in Egypt.

Brandeis University
ARMAN, (Reuter). — The Jordas Government has decided to boycott the Brandets University, near Boston, which granted the Israel Fremier, Mr. David Ben-Gurion, an honorary degree during his recent visit to the United States.

An official announcement on Monday said the Government had surpended currency permits for Jordanian students attending Brandeis University.

(No Jordanian has ever registered at the University, which, while non-sectarian, is endowed largely by Jewa).

The Jordan Minister of Communications, Anwar Nashashib, warase all sirfines to end trade relations with fercet and change their policies if they wanted to maintain friendly relations with Arab states. The Minister added that he considered any transportation of immigrants to izrael by an airline as a hostile sot against Jordan.

New Wing of Jerusalem Orphanage Dedicated

The home, in the Geula Quarter of the Capital, was opened in 1980 to take in homeisa immigrant girls arriving from Eastern Europe. In the course of the past 19 years, it has expanded its activities to aid orphaned girls and girls who have been sent to massion homes by their parents. Today, it cares for 120 cibidren aged 3 to 18.

So far, only the dormitory part of the new building has been opened, and the girls still have their meals in the old premises around the corner. Further construction has been halted for the time being for lack of funds. though additional support has been promised by the Home's ladies' auxiliary for the completion of the present wing and the addition of the planned annex.
